SAINT PETER'S COLLEGE

ISSUED BY THE PUBLIC INFORMATION OFFICE □ JERSEY CITY, N.J. 07306 / 333-4400 EXT. 570

VOL. 10 NO. 15

JANUARY 18, 1982

THEY'RE THE TOPS....Twenty Saint Peter's students have been named to Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities. The students are Helen V. Beckert, Frances Calello, Frank A. Campana, Dore Ann Celentano, Robert W. Ciocco, Mark Christopher Curtis, Katherine Dziewic, Bart Erbach, Maureen Ertle, Kenneth Garcia, Debra A. Irving, William H. Kron Jr., Alice Marie Lorenz, Diana Mazza, Mary Jo Nitting, Lucy M. Sardella, David S. Silva, Manuel A. Tellechea and John Zaremba.

DEPARTMENT LEADERS....Rev. Edward W. Brande, S.J., academic vice president, has announced the appointment of seven department chairmen. They are Dr. John C. Benson, Classics; Rev. Oscar Magnan, S.J., Fine Arts; Professor John T. Coughlin, History; Dr. Larry E. Thomas, Mathematics; Dr. Joseph L. Papay, Philosophy; Dr. George E. Martin, Political Science, and Professor Dennis P. Carmody, Psychology.

FACULTY FELLOWS....Six members of the faculty have received Faculty Fellowships for the 1982-83 academic year. They are Rev. Harry R. Burns, S.J., Philosophy; Dr. Neal R. Goodman, Sociology; Dr. Robert F. Massey, Psychology; Rev. Thomas L. Sheridan, S.J., Theology; Dr. Richard J. Uriarte, Chemistry, and Rev. John F. Wynn, S.J., History.

NEW ASSIGNMENT....Rev. Joseph E. Schuh, S.J., who has served Saint Peter's since 1951 as a member and chairman of the Biology Department and as the College representative to the Alumni Association, begins a new job this month as assistant director of financial support and planned giving. Vice President for Development Eugene J. Kennedy said Father Schuh would work on the organization of a parents' group, assist in planned giving proposals, and help obtain financial support from graduates in the professions.

LUNCHEON SERIES....As a follow-up to the Faculty-Administration Day on Jesuit Higher Education, the Planning Team has scheduled a series of informal luncheons to give the faculty and administrators a chance to meet each other. The first will be 11:30 A.M. January 27 in the Chetwood Room and others will be on every Wednesday thereafter.

SPORTS NOTES....Three members of the administration will add their talents to two College teams. Dean of Admissions Robert Nilan is the new bowling coach and Rev. Joseph A. Kelly, S.J., and Rev. Ambrose Cashman, C.P., of Campus Ministry, are coaching the golf team which will compete on the varsity level for the first time this year. Sheri Lauer of the Women's Basketball Team, recently was named Player of the Week by the New Jersey Basketball Writers and also was the Metro Atlantic Conference Dunn and Bradstreet Player of the Week. On the male side, freshman Shelton Gibbs was the writers Player of the Week.

A FIRST....Two Afro-American Studies courses will be offered in the Evening Division for the first time during the Spring Trimester. The courses are Sociology of the Black Family, which will be given in the A Pattern by Professor William Farrow of the day faculty, and Introduction to the Black Experience, by Dr. Michael Mbabwinke formerly of the Fordham faculty, in the B Pattern.

PERSONAL NOTICES....Vice President for Development Kennedy will represent Father Glynn at the inauguration of Rev. Frank Haig, S.J., as the president of Lemoyne this Friday. Athletic Trainer Bill Battershall has been named a consultant at the new Athletic Medicine and Sports Rehabilitation Center. Dr. Benjamin Michalik chaired a panel on "The Role of Government in Energy, Public Utilities and the Social Control of Private Enterprise", at the recent national convention of economists in Washington.

MARCH FOR LIFE....Anyone interested in taking part in the Right to Life March in Washington this Friday should contact Joe Michalik at Ext. 280 or at 354-1040.
