SAINT PETER'S COLLEGE
New Jersey's Jesuit College

VOLUME 13 NO. 4

(201) 333-4400, Extension 570, 571

OCTOBER 6, 1986

THEY'RE HAVING A PARTY

The 1987 Peacock Pie staff will hold its dedication party Oct. 10 from 3 to 7 p.m. in the Pavonia Room. The college community is invited to attend as the staff unveils its most closely guarded secret -- who the yearbook will be dedicated to. For more information call Sydney Scremin, editor-in-chief, ext. 290.

WELCOME TO THE CLUB

The Saint Peter's College P.C. and P.C. Compatibles Club will meet Oct. 8 at 3 p.m. in Pope 203. All members of the college community who purchased IBM compatible computers over the summer are invited. The meeting will focus on getting the most out of Wordstar.

To get on the club's mailing list, call Dr. Michael Fahy, ext. 579. In addition to special announcements, you'll receive a copy of Exchange, the IBM users group support newsletter.

WHO YOU GONNA CALL?

You've heard of Ghostbusters. Well, our Nursing Center has its own team of trouble-shooters guaranteed to zap stress. The stressbusters meet Thursday nights at 7 in room 5, Pope Lecture Hall, for a program called "Keeping Healthy in Spite of Stress." The small group format emphasizes practical techniques you can use to cope with stress.

The next meeting is scheduled for Oct. 16. A Wednesday morning session is also in the planning stages. Don't let the pressures of homework or office squabbles get you down. Who you gonna call? Professor Wendy Skiba-King, ext. 489!

A GENEROUS GIFT

The worldwide public accounting firm Ernst & Whinney recently contributed $550 to the college through the company's matching gift program. James DelVacchio, chairman of the accounting department, accepted the check from Ellen McSherry, senior manager of Ernst & Whinney's Newark office. The contribution will be used to purchase a printer for accounting students.

As the third largest of the "Big 8" public accounting firms, Ernst & Whinney operates 360 offices in 80 countries. In addition to its matching gifts program, the firm provides grants to doctoral candidates concentrating in accounting, sponsors professorships and faculty fellowships, and employs student accounting interns.

COCKTAILS FOR TWO, THREE, FOUR....

The second faculty social hour is scheduled for Oct. 10 at 3:30 p.m. in the Emeritus Room. Stop by to enjoy some time with your generous hosts, the Development Office. It's a great way to unwind at the end of the week.

PLEASE RETURN YOUR QUESTIONNAIRES

Dr. Neal Goodman requests that faculty members who haven't returned their questionnaires about the proposed minor in international studies send their responses by Oct. 15. This is a newly-extended deadline. If you haven't received a form, call him at ext. 311.

A "PUZZLING" SITUATION

The Argus Eyes Alumni Committee invites members of the college community to the opening performance of its latest play, "School For Scandal." Opening night on Oct. 17 has been designated College Community Night. Festivities begin at 3:30 p.m. with a social hour and cash bar, followed by a dinner in McIntyre Lounge. The play will be held in the newly-renovated Dinneen Theater. Deadline for reservations is Oct. 10. Price is $3 for dinner and the show.

Other performances are slated for Oct. 18, 19, 24, and 25. Members of the college community can purchase tickets for just $2 by showing an SPC I.D.

But the bargains don't stop there. If you unravel the following riddle and identify the Argus Eyes actress and her role, you can win a free ticket:

"Twice she died but remained on stage,
Once she killed but wasn't convicted,
Once she ruled the world."

Know the answer? Be the first to call Assistant Dean of Students Barbara Chryst, ext. 263, on Tuesday morning to claim your free ticket.

CAMPUS MINISTRY REMINDER

Campus Ministry is collecting men's clothing to donate to area homeless shelters during Peace and Justice Week. Drop off your items between Oct. 16 and 24 at the Campus Ministry office.

Wednesdays the department invites you to join its staff for coffee and donuts at 9:15 a.m. in the Dinneen Hall office. Masses are held daily at 8:30 a.m. in Saint Peter Hall and noon in the college chapel. Sunday masses are at 10:30 a.m. in the college chapel and 10 p.m. in the student resident chapel.

ANOTHER CLOTHING DRIVE

If you miss Campus Ministry's men's clothing drive, you can still donate your used clothing in good condition to the fourth annual drive sponsored by the Knights of Columbus and the Columbiettes. Drop off your contributions during October at the Knights of Columbus Office, Dinneen 232, or the Student Senate Office, Dinneen 229. For more information contact George Puccio, extension 280, or Sydney Scremin, extension 290.

Both organizations will represent Saint Peter's College in the annual Jersey City Columbus Day parade on Oct. 12.

A HANDY REFERENCE

Students can pick up a copy of the student handbook, the Net, in the dean of students office. Faculty members will receive copies through campus mail. Administrators who would like a copy should call the dean of students office, extension 263, to have their copies sent through campus mail.

FACULTY AND ADMINISTRATION NOTES

DR. WILLIAM LUHR, Department of English, discussed his recent work on the films of Blake Edwards at a Sept. 20 meeting of the Media Educators' Association. The session was held in Manhattan.

Urban Studies Department Chairperson Professor THOMAS MANSHEIM attended a one-day conference at Jersey City State College. Called "In Honor of Liberty," the Sept. 26 program was sponsored by the New Jersey Historical Commission.

DR. PATRICIA A. SULLIVAN, Associate Dean, served as a panelist on The Single Women Phenomena and JOAN ZADROZNY SHIELDS was a panelist on Professional Women/Community Leaders at a women's conference at Saint Peter's. The second annual conference called "Women -- Advancing through Adversity" was sponsored by Concerned Community Women of Jersey City on Sept. 27.
